

Update Information

Labor Education and classes offered by the Trade Tech Labor Center have always played an essential role in helping unions; leaders and activists learn the skills to organize in the workplace and communities.

Starting the first week of February, three unit college credit night courses will be held at union halls downtown in LA, Burbank, the San Gabriel Valley, and Orange County.

Anyone interested in taking classes, please contact the Guild on how to receive reimbursement for attending.

We would like to welcome our new steward for the West Valley Jane Dobija from Porter Ranch.
